Reader's Workshop

Please read pg. 97-112 of The Lightning Thief.

You can listen to it being read aloud here if you want:

You need to be writing down the names of the characters and what you learn about them! It is essential to your reading and it will be graded at the end of the book. Also, don't forget you can count this for your reading log! Your reading log is due Friday and I will give you another one on Wednesday pickup. There is a picture of my character notes for Annabeth on the next slide. You can even draw pictures if you want!

Example of my Lightning Thief notes

You should really have one page per character. You can staple them together to make a little booklet if you want if there's no room in your Reader's notebook!

Annabeth Chase

- blond hair/gray eyes
- camper who's been there the longest
- in charge of showing Percy around
- Kind of snobby?
- mother = Athena, goddess of wisdom

Vocab/Spelling

Do your vocab sentences and submit in the Google Form!

Math

Today, I am going to school to grab my math teacher's book and then starting tomorrow, we can use our little math books again. For now, here is a worksheet on simplifying fractions and finding equivalent fractions. Equivalent fractions are fractions that have the same value, such as $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{2}{4}$. It is attached to the parent email.

Social Studies

We're going to Zoom at 1:30 today for Social Studies! Here's the Zoom link to join:

We're going to go over some vocab and review Chapter 10! Please have your notebook and textbook with you.

Religion

The following students turned in their St. Patrick report: Daniella, Olivia, Diego F., Alex, Diego M, Miranda, and Jazline. Well Done!!

You have an assignment in Google Classroom. Sign in with your school email account & the class code is yd6zjrh for those of you who haven't signed in yet.

It is a video, 3 minute retreat & 2 response questions all around the theme of not passing judgement for none of us are perfect.
